

Join the Greater Jewish Boston community for a musical evening of connection and remembrance.

JCDS and Facing History and Ourselves present

Shir HaMa'alot (“Rising of Song”)

with Joey Weisenberg

Hosted at Temple Beth Zion

1566 Beacon St, Brookline

Thursday, April 12th

Yom HaShoah

6:30-8:00pm

Joey Weisenberg, Creative Director of Mechon Hadar’s Rising Song Institute and leading voice in Jewish music, will guide participants in singing pre-war melodies, as well as his own original nigunim (melodies) inspired by the music of that period. The evening will be an opportunity to use song as a way of commemorating and connecting to the communities lost in the Shoah.

For more information, visit www.jcdsboston.org/experience-jcbs, email GaviE@jcdsboston.org, or call 617-972-1733.

In recognizing the customs of Sefirat HaOmer that members of our community observe, a portion of the evening will be without instrumentation. The use of instrumental music during a dedicated portion of the evening will be in keeping with the mood of the day.