

Moskow Linn Architects

Studio North

Building small-scale interventions

Mission

Studio North is a seven-day intensive building workshop. The workshop offers students the opportunity to engage with the environment and to imagine, develop and construct inventive design solutions. An architectural education is best experienced through engagement in all aspects of the building process. This workshop is a fully immersive design experience.

Program

The workshop this year will take place in Chilmark, MA. The workshop will investigate a particular interest and responds with the design and construction of a complete prototype structure. The workshop is limited to ten participants and lead by architect Keith Moskow FAIA and Robert Linn AIA of the Boston based firm, Moskow Linn Architects.

Apply

Studio North is currently seeking applicants for this summer's workshop scheduled for June 13 - 19, 2022. The workshop is open to students of all abilities. Previous construction experience is not required.
