

Call Centers

Mission & Value Proposition

At OCE, we help organizations improve customer engagement while reducing operational challenges. Our Call Centers provide professional customer service and business technology support through a highly trained workforce, delivering cost-effective, scalable solutions that keep jobs in the USA. At the same time, OCE programs give adults in custody meaningful work and career training, helping them build skills for successful reentry. Partnering with OCE means reliable service and lasting community impact.

The Challenge

Organizations across industries face growing challenges in customer service and workforce management:

- Meeting growing customer expectations on reduced budgets
- Rising labor and turnover costs
- Inconsistent service quality or call handling standards
- Finding reliable partners aligned with organizational values
- Limited staffing flexibility
